

Privacy Statement

Data Search, Inc. and its subsidiaries (“DSI”) respect the privacy and security of your non-public personal information (“Personal Information”). Protecting you and your customer’s Personal Information is our top priority. This Privacy Statement explains DSI’s privacy practices, including how we use the personal information we receive from you and from other specified sources, and to whom it may be disclosed. DSI follows the privacy practices described in this Privacy Statement and, depending on the business performed, DSI may share information as described herein.

Personal Information Collected

We may collect Personal Information about you and/or your customer from the following sources:

Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as names, addresses, social security numbers, and tax identification numbers; Information we receive from you through our Internet web sites, such as names, addresses, e-mail addresses, Internet Protocol address, web links used to get to our web sites, and your activity while using or reviewing our web sites; Information about your transactions with or services performed by us, our affiliates, or others, such as information concerning your orders; and Information we receive from consumer or other reporting agencies and publicly recorded documents.

Disclosure of Personal Information

We may provide your Personal Information (excluding information we receive from consumer or other credit reporting agencies) to various individuals and companies, as permitted by law, without obtaining your prior authorization. Such laws do not allow consumers to restrict these disclosures.

Disclosures may include, without limitation, the following:

To insurance agents, brokers, representatives, support organizations, or others to provide you with services you have requested, and to enable us to detect or prevent criminal activity, fraud, material misrepresentation, or nondisclosure in connection with an insurance transaction; To third-party contractors or service providers for the purpose of determining your eligibility for an insurance policy and/or providing you with services you have requested; To an insurance regulatory authority, or a law enforcement or other governmental authority, in a civil action, in connection with a subpoena or a governmental investigation; and/or To lenders, lien holders, judgment creditors, or other parties claiming an encumbrance or an interest in title whose claim or interest must be determined, settled, paid or released prior to a title or escrow closing.

We may also disclose your Personal information to others when we believe, in good faith, that such disclosure is reasonably necessary to comply with the law or to protect the safety of our customers, employees, or property and/or to comply with a judicial proceeding, court order or legal process.

Disclosure to Affiliated Companies – We are permitted by law to share your name, address and facts about your transaction with other DSI companies, such as technology companies, agents or other real estate service providers that provide the services you have requested, for marketing or product development research, or to market products or services to you. We do not, however, disclose information we collect from consumer or credit reporting agencies with our affiliates or others without your consent, in conformity with applicable law, unless such disclosure is otherwise permitted by law.

Disclosure to Nonaffiliated Third Parties – We do not disclose Personal Information about our clients, former clients or their customers to any nonaffiliated third party, except as outlined herein or as otherwise permitted by law.

Confidentiality and Security of Personal Information

We restrict access to personal Information about you and your customer to those employees who “need to know” for the purposes of providing products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard Personal Information.

Access to Personal Information/Requests for Correction, Amendment or Deletion of Personal Information

As required by applicable law, we will afford you the right to access your Personal Information, under certain circumstances to find out to whom your Personal Information has been disclosed, and request correction or deletion of your Personal Information. However, DSI’s current policy is to maintain customers’ Personal Information for no less than your state’s required record retention requirements for the purpose of handling future coverage claims.

For your protection, all requests made under this section must be in writing and must include your notarized signature to establish your identity. Where permitted by law, we may charge a reasonable fee to cover the costs incurred in responding to such requests. Please send requests to:
